

BELVEDERE CLUB 2019 ARCHITECTURAL INVENTORY

Site: 141

Historic Name N/A

Year Built 1904

Architectural Style Shingle style

The cross-gable horizontal massing of this two-story cottage with its clapboard and shingle cladding, deep porches, and deep eaves with carved brackets, in addition to the large arch on the front porch are all characteristic of the Shingle style. The front gable with angled sides and Palladian window with diamond panes and wood trim, as well as the round window in the north gable end are also indicative of the style.

Significant Features

- Cross-gable roof with gable front with angled sides extending over the front porch, deep eaves with carved brackets and horizontal massing.
- Full width front porch with clapboard knee walls, Doric pillars, and large central arch with wood keystone, wood trim above and central front steps.
- Clapboard sided first floor and shingle sided second floor.
- Palladian window with diamond panes in gable front, round window with wood trim in north gable. The first-floor windows with the larger lower sash are typical of the Shingle style period.
- Sleeping porches in north and south wings.

Condition

The cottage appears to be in good repair with no apparent issues. The cottage retains most of its original features.
