

CROSSED THE BAR

We recently received word of the passing of two Belvedere “family” members. Mr. William Schleman, son of the former owner of Cottage #508, and Mrs. Patricia “Pat” Chadwick Lamar, who along with her husband Dr. Wayne T. Lamar was a renter at the Club. Please find below information passed along from the families:

William Schleman

This past Wednesday, October 3, at 10:30 p.m., Bill Schleman passed away from the effects of many heart attacks over a period of months. His parents once owned Cottage #508. He is survived by his son Michael, and his daughter Sarah Priest-Heck, and three granddaughters. His ashes will be scattered over Lake Charlevoix by his children.
