Barbara Shwab

Barbara Lydick Shwab, age 83, of Franklin, Tennessee passed away on Tuesday, May 3, 2022. Barbara was born February 26, 1939, in Chester, Pennsylvania to the late George Lydick and Luna Mae Durbin Lydick. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband of sixty years, George Augustus Shwab, III, and brother, George Lydick Jr.

Barbara is survived by her son, George Augustus (Sandy) Shwab, IV; daughter, Deane (George) Shwab Vermilya of Lynchburg VA; grandchildren, Matthew Issac Huff, Stephen Kirk Huff, Emily V Phillips, Douglas Vermilya and Sydney Vermilya; great-grandchildren include Landon Huff, Nora Huff, and Owen Huff.

Barbara met the love of her life while attending Purdue University while going to the Episcopal Church off-campus on Sundays. She and George were married on May 30th, 1959, in Lafayette, Indiana. They moved to California but ultimately moved back east in 1975 to be closer to his family here in Nashville. She spent every Summer until recently at the Family cottage at the Belvedere Club in Charlevoix, MI, as well as at her other home in Beaufort, SC.

A Graveside Service will be held privately at the Historic Mount Olivet Cemetery.

The Family requests in lieu of flowers to make donations to The Huff Project. <https://www.thehuffproject.org/#/>
